

LifePath Training & Facilitation Presents 2 Day Zoom Webinar Retreat

CONSCIOUS LISTENING AND SPEAKING

April 17th & 25th 2026
9:00-12:00 & 1:30-3:30

Today, conversations are skewed by a barrage of questions with little space left to have something new emerge spontaneously in our speaking and listening.

We are called to find a way to listen with our entire being to what matters the most to those we serve.

Our aim is to meaningfully come to know those we serve so that we support them so set the pace and direction of change.

- This two-day, in-depth webinar offsets participants an expanded imagination of what it takes to be truly present in a conversation and hold space.
- Through personal reflection and dialogue, participants will have opportunities to explore new ways to approach conversations and practise what it takes to transform our relationships with others.
- This webinar is suited to families, independent facilitators, death doulas, and support workers.
