

Thursday, June 19th and Thursday, July 10th 2025
9:00–12:00, 1:30–3:30 pm

Navigating the Journey to Adulthood with Judith McGill

This webinar is designed for parents, siblings, facilitators and community support workers.

Course Benefits:

Participants will learn more about how to:

- Facilitate Adult Roles and Meaningful Contributions
- Broaden Legacy Planning Conversations
- Nurture the Person's Willingness to be Seen and Heard
- Support the Person to Re-imagine What is Possible
- Expand the Person's Shared Autonomy and Decision-Making
- Foster Broader More Meaningful Connections
- Facilitate a Greater Sense of Adulthood by Creating "Rites of Passage"

To learn more and register
Go to www.LifePathtraining.com

COURSE DIRECTOR

Judith McGill is a writer, mentor and adult educator. She has worked as the Executive Director of Families for a Secure Future for over 20 years. As an Independent Facilitator she spends time with individuals and their families supporting them to take up their adult roles and actively "re-imagine" their futures one step at a time. She is also a sibling and strong advocate for change.

PHOTO CREDIT: MARION VOYSEY 2024

